{XMLID}}CMS

{{DATE}} 1856-07-25

{{AUTHOR}} sedgwick-catharine

{{RECIPIENT}}

{{HEAD}} Catharine Maria Sedgwick to

{{EDITOR}} Patricia Kalayjian, Lucinda Damon-Bach, Deborah Gussman

{{EDITION}} CMSOL

{{TRANSCRIBER}} Olivia Macanka

{{TRANSCRIPTION-DATE}} 09-27-2025

{{MILESTONES}}transcription persRef subjects annotation

{{SUBJECT}} Family Relations (Sedgwick Family)

{{SUBJECT}} Politics

{{SUBJECT}} Publication

{{SUBJECT}} Shopping and Materials Exchange

{{DATELINE}} Lenox 25' July ['56]

{{SALUTE}} My dear friend--

I have been from day to day, this Summer intending to write to you -- feeling very sure that you and all [our?] dear Rosyln friends w^{d} be anxious to hear par--ticularly from my brother, but I had nothing pleasant to tell, & {{PB}} I think from extending the dreary shadows that are about us-- My brother's disease is gradual--ly increasing-- He does not suffer acute pain but much discomfort from the pressure of the water, & debility-- He [manfully?] struggle-- drives every morn'g & is carried in a handwagon{{PB}} about his grounds in the afternoon-- He is peaceful, & confiding in the love of that infinite nature - of which, you will not blame me for saying; he has seemed to me the [inert?] image I have ever seen-- you will not wonder that [knit?] as he is to all humanity he should love life, & cling to it --

His rural affairs still interest him-- {{PB}} [to is] applied to Freemont's election! -

{{CLOSE}} My love to your dear wife & children & believe me yours aff^{y}

{{SIGNED}}-- CMSedgwick

{{PS}} If the publishers have not sent you the book he asks you to charge it to him-- and further wishes me to add that he does not expect you to read the whole book / your reader can do the {{PB}} [departhing?] at all from historical verity-- I take is that M^{s} Hopkins prepare & hope has been to get his book in to the School-- ~~{{ILL}}~~ libraries. -- and from what I have read of it I should think it admirably adapted to that {{ILL}}

-- He has, I believe-- {{PB}} been pains--staking, & very faithful in his delineations -- failure

His pecuniary successor is ['neek?] or nothing' to him-- This is no reason why the brief part should [prlieu?] him -- but if the part does its honest {{PB}} word may do him much good-- and at any rate it does my brother good to lift a hand for him--

My brother desires me to give his love to you & to M^{rs}.Bryant -- and asks if you nee^{d}-- a draft he sent to you for $200 -- from a friend in Boston {{PB}}

I should not perhaps have had the courage to write now, but that {{ILL}} has expressed a very strong desire that you should be requested to have some particular notice taken in your paper of a book written by Sam -- Hopkins/ who mar^{d} -- M^{rs}{{ILL}} Sedgwick's sister) {{ILL}} is called "the youth of the old dominion" -- and is an attempt to ~~{{ILL}}~~ ^make^ the [fine?] & truly romantic story of Smith -- attraction to young people-- without {{PB}} reading my dear brother does not know that {{ILL}} -- and to warn you that the first chapters are the [finest],

~~{{ILL}}~~

{{INSERTION}}

{{SOURCE}}

{{DOCTYPE}}Letter

{{REPOSITORY}}Massachusetts Historical Society

{{COLLECTION}}

{{CONDITION}}

{{ADDRESS}}

{{NOTATION}}

{{ENDORSEMENT}}

{{NOTE}}